Dear CCFR Member:

The next dinner meeting of the Casper Committee on Foreign Relations will be Thursday March 14 at the Casper Country Club in the upstairs banquet room. No-host cocktails will begin at 6:15pm; dinner at 7pm (Wyoming sirloin steak or vegetarian); with our speaker following dinner. Please contact me at the above phone number or via e-mail on your plans to attend, how many will be in your party, and your meal selection(s), by 5pm Tuesday March 12. According to Club policy, those who RSVP will be guaranteed their meal selection(s).

Presentation: "A Trumpian Arms Control Agenda: What Might It Be?"

Henry Sokolski, Nonproliferation Policy Education Center

Henry Sokolski is Executive Director of the Nonproliferation Policy Education Center. He also teaches graduate classes on nuclear policy at the University of Utah and the Institute of World Politics, and is a Senior Fellow for Nuclear Security Studies at the University of California-San Diego. He also has taught at the University of Chicago, Georgetown University, and Loyola University. He worked as a nuclear proliferation consultant for the National Intelligence Council, as a member of the Central Intelligence Agency's Senior Advisory Panel, and as a member of the Commission on the Prevention of Weapons of Mass Destruction Proliferation and Terrorism. Sokolski also served on two Congressional commissions on the prevention of WMD proliferation and as a fellow at the National Institute for Public Policy, the Heritage Foundation, and the Hoover Institution. Previously, he worked in the Pentagon as Deputy for Nonproliferation Policy and in the Office of Net Assessment working on strategic weapons proliferation issues. Sokolski has authored and edited a number of books on nuclear proliferation including Underestimated: Our Not So Peaceful Nuclear Future and Best of Intentions: America's Campaign Against Strategic Weapons Proliferation. He is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations and the International Institute for Strategic Studies. Sokolski attended the University of Southern California and Pomona College and completed his graduate studies in Political Science at the University of Chicago.

I hope that you are able to attend this month's important meeting. The speaker for next month's meeting is still being arranged.

Sincerely,

Erich Frankland
